

Alpha Sigma Nu

THE HONOR SOCIETY OF JESUIT INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGE HONOR SOCIETIES

SUMMER 2005

Dear Members,

On the 90th Anniversary of Alpha Sigma Nu, I am delighted to inform you of all that we have to celebrate, and to thank you for contributing to our mission. We have inducted more members, raised more funds, and provided more services to our members in that past year than in our history.

In 1915, John Danihy, SJ, charged 11 students "to band together those alumni who most fully understand and appreciate the ideals of a Jesuit education and to impress these ideals upon their fellow men." After giving their solemn pledge to abide by these principles, Father Danihy inducted the first members of Alpha Sigma Nu. This year, 1,733 students at our 32 Jesuit member institutions pledged to carry out the ideals of scholarship, loyalty, and service, making our Society over 58,000 members strong.

Today, we are meeting Father Danihy's challenge. The role of the Society in the new millennium is:

- To encourage students to excel academically, serve their campus and community with distinction, and live loyally to Jesuit ideals
- To address our members' desire to deepen their Ignatian spirituality and to live the ideals of scholarship, loyalty, and service in their personal and professional lives

Our 90th Anniversary sees Alpha Sigma Nu Chapters honoring students who will lead their generation guided by Jesuit ideals. Our Alumni Clubs, now in 13 locations, provide a venue for intelligent conversation and action among our members looking to continue their Ignatian formation. We welcome the new St. Louis and Northeastern Pennsylvania Clubs, and thank those alumni instrumental in their development.

You make this possible by your support of the Sustaining Fund. Celebrate with us by contributing to our Society. In 2004-05, Alpha Sigma Nu members contributed a record $158,104. We have set a goal of $175,000 to raise in honor of this milestone. Please look for your winter newsletter and 90th Anniversary Sustaining Fund mailing for more information and ways of giving.

At AΣN's 50th Anniversary Dinner, Pedro Arrupe, SJ, (Marquette '67) challenged Alpha Sigma Nu members to emphasize scholarship, loyalty, and service after graduation and to "reflect in your works and your words the light of the Gospel." Let us continue to meet this challenge...on to our 100th!

Sincerely,

Mark A. Kadzielski

THE 90th Celebrating a Milestone

1915

Eleven students, one Chapter, and... Father Danihy's vision for the Society to move beyond the walls of Marquette to become a national Jesuit organization.

2005

58,289 members, 32 student Chapters, 13 Alumni Clubs, and... scholarship, loyalty, and service fostered on campus and beyond!

Rev. John Danihy, SJ

In the past 90 years, much has changed as Alpha Sigma Nu has grown and responded to its members and the times in which we live. The AΣN commitment to scholarship, loyalty to Jesuit ideals, and service to campus and community guides our mission.

The Society has survived two World Wars, the Depression, the '60s and '70s (when some Chapters suspended activities due to campus upheaval), and the global changes leading to the new millennium.

AΣN's health and vitality are in part due to the merging of Alpha Sigma Nu with Gamma Pi Epsilon in 1973. While their coming together was not without its challenges, the mutual purposes, members' dedication to the long-term goals of AΣN, and the strong leadership of both societies ensured the merger's success.

Today, Alpha Sigma Nu Chapters, Clubs, and members act in the spirit of Pedro Arrupe, SJ's challenge to emphasize scholarship, loyalty, and service after graduation and to "reflect in your works and your words the light of the Gospel." We have moved from "being" an honor society to "acting" as a Jesuit honor society:

- Our 32 Chapters honor the Jesuit-trained leaders of tomorrow, encouraging and rewarding their scholarship, loyalty, and service
- Members of these Chapters perform service to their campuses, and to those in need in their communities
- Our 13 Alumni Clubs provide "ongoing formation" of Ignatian spirituality, perform service to their communities, and act as a venue for conversation on living the Jesuit ideals in the new millennium
- Alpha Sigma Nu sponsors scholarships at our 32 member institutions
- In collaboration with the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities, AΣN honors authors on our campuses with the Jesuit Book Awards

MEN AND WOMEN FOR OTHERS ... EVERY DAY

At Wheeling Jesuit, membership in Alpha Sigma Nu means rolling up your sleeves to feed the hungry. Every day...weekends, the day before a paper is due, exam weeks, Christmas break, summers. "Alpha Sigma Nu members take this tradition of service seriously," says Nicole Meyer (WJU '04), president of the Wheeling Chapter. "People wouldn't eat without this project!"

WJU Faculty Adviser Mike Steltenkamp, SJ, (WJU '95) is the author of this endeavor. In 2001, Father Mike was in the office of former student Richard Riesbeck (WJU '03), president and CEO of Riesbeck Foods Inc., when he asked Richard if AΣN students could pick-up leftover bread and deli items from his Wheeling store for delivery to Catholic Charities. Richard readily agreed, "The challenge is the logistics, not the desire to share." Today, Alpha Sigma Nu members facilitate the daily pick-up of food from two Riesbeck stores, as well as delivery of that food to the Wheeling's Catholic Neighborhood Center. "We have 20 current members who commit to volunteer once a week for a pick-up and delivery," says Nicole. "Students know when they receive the honor of induction into Alpha Sigma Nu that this service is an expectation."

The Catholic Charities Neighborhood Center provides food, clothing, utility assistance, health care, and other necessities for the poor, the homeless, and low-income families in the Upper Ohio Valley. Center Director Sr. Constance Dodd, S.M., sees profound changes in both the students and the Center due to the involvement of WJU students. "You cannot rub shoulders with the poor without changing," she comments. "Students truly mature due to their experiences here. From the Center's perspective, we could not do what we do without the students who pick-up, deliver and serve the food. Wheeling Jesuit students help in every aspect of life at the Center." The Center serves more than 100,000 meals a year.

The AΣN Chapter recruits and coordinates other campus volunteers for the program. "Our men's basketball coach and athletic director, Jay DeFruscio, is a 'man for others,'" says Father Mike. "He took to the teams the proposition of joining with AΣN, and they agreed to rotate doing pick-ups on certain days of the month. This not only helped AΣN, but it enabled the athletic community to put another face on their presence to the school and community. Hence AΣN is a yeast for others to do service." Students living at the Mother Jones House, an intentional Christian community of WJU students, do Saturday pick-ups. "We collaborate with 10 agencies on food pick-ups, and the WJU run goes the smoothest," adds Richard. "There are times the Jesuits pitch in; I have seen Father Hacala making the run!" Joseph Hacala, SJ, (Loyola Chicago '97) is president of Wheeling Jesuit. Nicole sums up the success of the program, "I have never had a problem getting volunteers. We realize how many people are fed, and appreciate the generosity of Riesbeck's."

After receiving a certificate in accounting in 1969, Richard pursued a bachelor's degree. That pursuit was interrupted by the deaths of his grandmother and parents, and he returned to the family business, Riesbeck's. Founded in 1926, Riesbeck's today has 13 stores, and sales exceeding $200 million a year.

While a successful executive, Richard increasingly longed to return to school for his bachelor's and master's degrees. He enrolled part-time at Wheeling Jesuit in 2000, majoring in organizational leadership and development, where he met Father Mike and was inducted into Alpha Sigma Nu. He is now pursuing a master's degree in theology. "Ignatian principles teach us that we must serve others, and when we live these principles together, we become inspired by one another," concludes Richard.

ALUMNI CLUBS

Baltimore: Club members were inspired by Timothy Brown, SJ (Loyola Maryland '94) as he spoke in April to the Baltimore Club on the Cristo Rey High School feasibility study and possible Club collaboration.

Boston: The Boston Club enjoyed their Annual Boston College Christmas Concert, with a reception following.

Buffalo: The Annual Alumni Award Brunch honored Charity Vogel (Canisius '05), reporter for the Buffalo News. The Buffalo Club collaborated with the Student Chapter on the Annual Christmas toy drive and dinner for refugees.

Chicago: The Chicago Club regularly volunteers at a soup kitchen and for public TV. Chris Lowney (Fordham '04) spoke to the Club on his book Heroic Leadership in April. Outings have included a cemetery walk/scavenger hunt inside one of Chicago's lesser-known historical gems and ice-skating at the new Millennium Park, as well as an outing to Ravinia. Watch for the monthly e-newsletter; it will have information about tutoring at the Chicago Jesuit Academy.

Denver: Alpha Sigma Nu alumni attended a reception following the ceremony where Sr. Helen Prejean (Spring Hill '02) received an honorary doctorate from Regis for her work fighting capital punishment. The Club presented "Everyday Ethics," by Dr. Catharyn Baird, featuring two sessions that included spiritual practice, presentation, and process. Denver AΣN'ers also are planning a book club.

Kansas City: The Daves Lecture, featuring Sen. George Mitchell, is rescheduled for October 31, 2005.

Los Angeles: The Club's first event featured Randy Roche, SJ (Loyola Marymount '81) speaking on "Ignatian Spirituality in Everyday Life." Officers have been elected, and the Club is planning fall events.

Milwaukee/Danily: The Danily Club honored T. Michael Bolger (Marquette '60) at its Annual Awards Brunch March 13, 2005. An Ignatian coaching clinic is in the works for fall.

New York: David McCallum SJ, (LeMoyne '89) presented the third part of his Ignatian spirituality series. Chris Lowney (Fordham '04) discussed his new book, A Vanished World, at an April event. The Club hosted AΣN graduating seniors from Fordham and St. Peter's for a career networking event, also in April.

Northeastern Pennsylvania: Tom Hogan (Scranton '92), University of Scranton Faculty Adviser, is the lead volunteer. The Club's kickoff event will feature William Byron, SJ (St. Joseph's '50) October 29, 2005. See announcement box.

Omaha: The Annual Award dinner and lecture on April 2, featuring E. Michael McCann (Georgetown '61) gathered 120 for his speech "Living as Men and Women for Others."

Thomas J. Shannon, SJ (Creighton '97), Barbara McCann, E. Michael McCann (Georgetown '61) at the Omaha Club lecture, April 2, 2005.

St. Louis: St. Louis has elected officers, and looks to fall for its first event.

Washington, D.C.: The annual meeting featured Dolores Leckey, Woodstock Theological Institute, on the ABC's of Leadership. The Club's Spring event was hosted by the DC Club's service partner, the Washington Jesuit Academy, a Nativity Network school.

CHAPTER HIGHLIGHTS

Boston College

The e-newsletter "The Honor Roll" kept AΣN members informed of university events and the activities of their fellow students. During senior week, the annual AΣN Honors Banquet recognized the departing senior members.

Kevin Collins (BC '03)
Michael Heinecke (WJ '97)
Elizabeth Heinecke
Fr. William McInnes, SJ (USF '73)
Michael Hondgen (BC '03)

Canisius College

The AΣN Concert with student performers benefited Mother Teresa's Home in Mexico City. Members continued the tradition of the Annual Christmas party for Refugees, and participated in Community Clean-up Day.

Fairfield University

Fairfield AΣN members serve food regularly at Prospect House, a homeless shelter in Bridgeport. The gifts they collect are distributed at monthly children's birthday parties at the Thomas Merton Center.

Fordham University

Chapter president Brendan T. Marshall (Fordham '04) and Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. John Hollwitz (LeMoyne '73), co-founded a scholarship for two AΣN members to study abroad at the Beijing Center, China, during 2005-2006. The Chapter also established a presidential award for service for AΣN members. Members participated in the Breast Cancer Walk, and bi-annual blood drive/bone marrow registry, and collected funds to pay for medicine for a homeless man.

Georgetown University

AΣN ushered the Faculty Convocation and other presidential events, and greeted guests at the Honorary Degree Ceremony, attended by King Abdullah Bin-Hussein II of Jordan.

College of the Holy Cross

The Chapter's Advent Christmas Toy Collection supplied gifts to three local parishes, the diocesan refugee center, and the Lakota Sioux at Pine Ridge, South Dakota. Also, members volunteer as SPUD (Student Programs for Urban Development) tutors at Nativity Worcester Middle School.

LeMoyne College

Student members volunteered at a soup kitchen. Also, they participated in the LeMoyne visit of Mr. Bertie Ahern, T.D., Prime Minister (Taoiseach) of Ireland.

Loyola University Chicago (LUC)

President Michael Garanzini, SJ (St. Louis '71) joined Chapter members at two networking socials this year. Members served as ushers at Loyola's Chapel Series, in which speakers discuss topics important to today's Catholics.

Loyola College of Maryland

Working with the Center for Values and Services, the Chapter collected Christmas presents for needy families.

Loyola Marymount

President Robert B. Lawton, SJ (Georgetown '89) hosted the student Chapter at a dinner.

Regis University

Chapter members filled and distributed Easter baskets to neighborhood school children. To encourage scholarship, the Chapter organized the first annual "Last Lecture Series." In the series, a professor from the college presents a "last lecture" to AΣN members, delivering a message he/she would share if this were to be his/her last chance to speak to students.

St. Joseph's University

The Saint Joseph's University's chapter ran a two-week peanut butter drive in the Spring to benefit Our Lady of the Rosary parish in West Philadelphia. This parish single-handedly runs a food bank for families in the surrounding areas.

St. Louis University

Members presented the 40th annual Nancy McNeir Ring award to Michelle Lorenzini, Ph.D., assistant professor of political science, on May 13. It is the oldest student-initiated faculty award at the University and honors the University's first dean of women.

Santa Clara University

At Santa Clara's induction ceremony on April 27th, 28 undergraduates were installed. The keynote address was delivered by Mark Ravizza, SJ (JSTB '99), of Santa Clara's philosophy department, who championed the often-neglected value of leisure.

St. Peter's College

The St. Peter's Chapter president John Nicholson (St. Peter's '04) connected with the New York AΣN Alumni Club, and held a career networking event in Manhattan this spring.

Spring Hill College

Alpha Sigma Nu hosted Sister Helen Prejean, CSJ (Spring Hill '02), a Pulitzer Prize-nominated author, November 14. She spoke about her book, Dead Man Walking, to faculty, staff, and students.

University of Detroit Mercy

John Staudenmaier, SJ, is the new Faculty Adviser for next year. His father, Louis (Marquette '32), was an early member and officer of the Marquette Chapter. Father Staudenmaier is a 1985 AΣN Book Award winner.

University of San Francisco

AΣN members participated in the October Outreach (park beautification) and April Action (working with a food bank).

1994 The Board of Alpha Sigma Nu appointed Peg Fennig as Executive Director

1998 Alpha Sigma Nu Web site launched.

2001 Alpha Sigma Nu Online Directory gave members a new networking resource.

2002 The Board determined that the growth of Alumni Clubs was critical to the vitality and future health of the Society.

2003 At the Triennial Conference, these Alumni Clubs received their charters: Boston, Buffalo, Chicago, Denver, New York, and Washington, D.C.

2004 The Los Angeles and Baltimore Alumni Clubs received their charter.

Kate Gaertner was named Alpha Sigma Nu's fourth Executive Director.

2005 The St. Louis and Northeastern Pennsylvania Alumni Clubs were welcomed
